you can post your thoughts here on agriTalk from your Ipod as easy as 1.2.3. Registration is easy and fun, we are a growing Ag community. We would love to hear from you. Not ready to register, that's fine, you can comment on any of our articles without registering. Give us a try. Let's talk Ag right here and let's spread the word about all the current Ag issues we are all facing. The more we talk the better chance to be heard.
